Defendant, Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of Social Security (“Commissioner”), by her attorneys, William N. Nettles, United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina, and Barbara M. Bowens, Assistant United States Attorney for said district, has moved this court, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), to enter a judgment with an order of reversal with remand of the cause to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings. [Entry #13]. The motion represents that Plaintiff’s counsel, Eugene Powell, Jr., consents to the motion. Id.

By order of the court, this case is remanded to the Appeals Council. The Appeals Council will direct the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) to further consider Plaintiff’s residual functional capacity and, in so doing, to evaluate and discuss a new and material opinion from treating psychologist Linda Jenness-McClellan, Ph.D., as well as decisions on disability by the Department of Veterans’ Affairs contained in the record. The Appeals Council will further instruct the ALJ that, if warranted by the expanded record, she must obtain supplemental vocational expert evidence concerning the existence of jobs in significant numbers in the national economy that Plaintiff can perform.

Pursuant to the power of this court to enter a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the Commissioner's decision with remand in Social Security actions under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and in light of the Commissioner's request for remand of this action for further proceedings, this court hereby reverses the Commissioner's decision under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) with a remand of the cause to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings as set out above. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292 (1993). The Clerk of Court is directed to enter a separate judgment pursuant to the Fed. R. Civ. P. 58.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
